

The Personal Data Processing Policy of EVOAGRO NUTRICIÓN S.A.S. (hereinafter “EVOAGRO”) is available at [link]. This document details the terms and conditions under which EVOAGRO processes the Personal Data of individuals who register on its website [link] (the “Website”). Individuals who register or access this Website will be considered users (the “Users”). EVOAGRO informs that, in the course of its business activity, it will process the personal data of Users, both continuously and sporadically, which includes the collection, use, storage, circulation, deletion, transmission, or transfer of personal and sensitive data. If you would like to obtain a copy of the Personal Data Processing Policy, you can request it expressly via email at [email].

EVOAGRO informs Users that their personal data will be processed according to the purposes described in the Personal Data Processing Policy, which can be consulted at [link]. The collection, storage, use, processing, transfer, and/or transmission of Users' personal data may be conducted at both national and international levels, especially towards subsidiaries or associated companies, by EVOAGRO or entities it designates.

USE OF SENSITIVE INFORMATION

EVOAGRO informs Users that the provision of sensitive personal data, such as their image, is optional. During the processing of personal data, the rights of minors will be respected, as established in EVOAGRO's Personal Data Processing Policy.

PURPOSES OF PROCESSING

EVOAGRO will use Users' personal data for the following purposes: (a) To offer the services provided by EVOAGRO. (b) To register users on the Website. (c) To create user accounts on the Website. (d) To comply with applicable legislation. (e) For educational and academic purposes. (f) To establish communication with data subjects regarding the purposes outlined in EVOAGRO's Personal Data Processing Policy, through calls, text messages, emails, and/or physical correspondence. (g) To conduct studies or research for academic or commercial purposes. (h) To consult and carry out administrative procedures, send commercial information, request the completion of surveys, as well as to collect, store, use, circulate, delete, process, contact, survey, compile, exchange, publish, audit, update, and/or process Users' personal data in the various databases processed.

Users may exercise their rights at any time to:

(a) Know, update, correct, or delete their personal data. (b) Request proof of the authorization granted for the processing of their data. (c) Be informed about how their personal data has been used. (d) File complaints with the Superintendence of Industry and Commerce. (e) Revoke the authorization and/or request the deletion of their personal data. To exercise these rights, Users must follow the procedures established in EVOAGRO's Personal Data Processing Policy at [link], either by going directly to the address: Barranquilla Calle 77b No. 67-103 OF 301, or by sending an email to [email], addressed to [*].